NACS enrollment concludes with a vast majority of students returning onsite despite the COVID-19 pandemic

Fort Wayne, Ind. (Friday, Aug. 7, 2020) –Northwest Allen County Schools completed its fall 2020 registration process this week with an increase of roughly 100 students. Next week NACS will have 86.4 percent of its students returning onsite and 13.6 percent returning through remote learning.

The first day of school is set for Wednesday, Aug. 12. More information about NACS schools, registration, or the district reopening plans may be found online at nacs.k12.in.us. All of the secondary schools have spirit-wear masks available for purchase to support the athletics programs at Maple Creek, Carroll Middle and Carroll High schools.
